

Vedic Astrology Interpretation for YOU

Details of Chart – SAMPLE REPORT ONLY

Please note - Most of the Dates are in in Year-Month-Date format

This report contains Interpretation of every Planetary placement as per Vedic Astrology and as understood and learnt over years of experience. Vedic Astrology considers Sun, Moon, Mars, Mercury, Jupiter, Saturn, Rahu (North Node) and Ketu (South Node). It does not consider Pluto, Neptune and Uranus.

As human life is a complex mixture of contradicting forces, so some of the planetary combinations can be opposite to each others. E.g. sometimes in your life you may be extremely happy with your profession and at some times in your life you may be not satisfied and looking for change.

These different effects play out at different ages of your life. One of the most effective and common method of predicting life situations at various times is known as “Vimshottari Dasha”, which can be roughly said to be time-periods of various planets in your life. This system divides your life in cycle of 120 years and multiple planetary influences operates at certain different times.

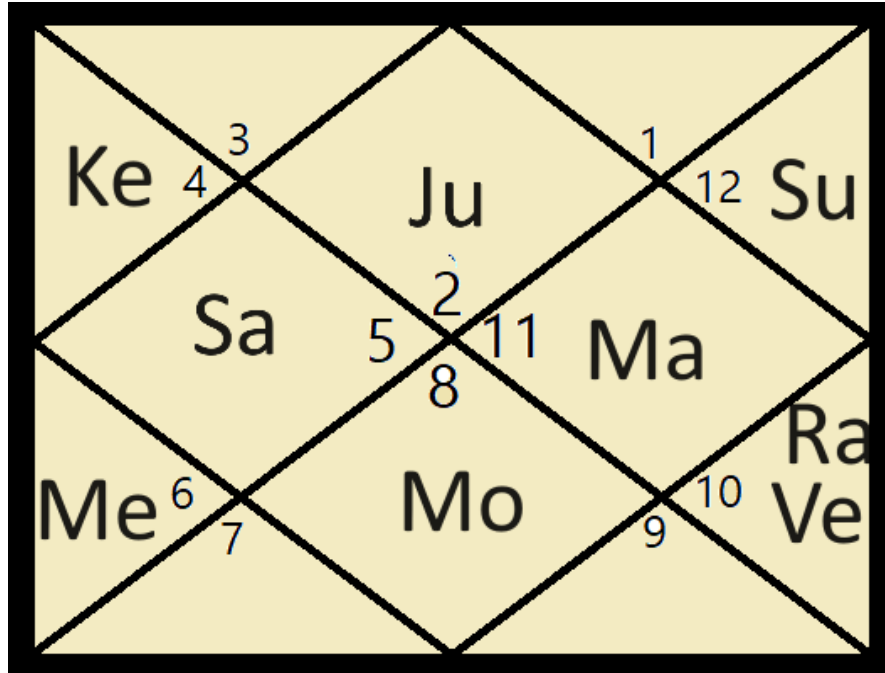

A full “Vimshottari Dasha” table is provided at the end of the report.

So typically in cases where contradicting effects are available, when you are running time periods of favorable planets then things will go smoothly in that area of life and when time periods of non-favorable planets are running things faces difficulty in the same area of life.

The report will contain information about most important time-periods of each planet in your chart as well.

Interpretation of Rahu - North Node in your chart

Rahu in traditional Vedic Astrology is given a great significance for one's life, however interpretation of Rahu and Ketu (nodes of Moon) has been a great challenge.

- Rahu in this position shows strong karma related to relationships and partnerships.

- This position suggests that in your past life, you faced many challenges related to someone else's personal life. You may have experienced interference or difficulties in relationships or partnerships, impacting your own sense of harmony and balance. It is important for you to reflect on these past experiences to understand how they may be influencing your current relationships and interpersonal dynamics.

- Rahu in this position especially during its sub-periods (e.g. Mercury-Rahu, Jupiter-Rahu periods) shows opportunities of staying away from spouse. Depending on time period it can be due to work or family related reasons.

- Rahu in this position can give some temperamental differences with spouse.

- This position of Rahu generally makes one have some particular expectations in relationship. This can at times give some feeling such as spouse is not as much emotionally sensitive as you want them to be in certain situations or that spouse doesn't give enough space or some similar such feelings can crop up at times. Thus Rahu here shows need of careful handling of expectations in relations especially during Rahu main and subperiods.

- This position also shows some irregular menstruation and related reproductive system issues in a female chart or to spouse in male chart.

- It is observed that often times Rahu is associated with either taller or bit shorter than normal height in family.

- Rahu gives some minor difficulty with home such as old house or house requiring repairs frequently or not great relations with neighbor etc.

- Rahu in this position gives a highly ambitious nature and person wants to achieve or gain a lot of things in life. This intense desire can lead to good success when properly managed.

- Rahu in this position is considered to give some delays in marriage. However this effect is most prominently found when Rahu is in Gemini, Virgo, Libra or Sagittarius sign.

- # Rahu Main periods generally gives medium results. However in this position 11th house lord main period and Rahu sub-period are found to be difficult.

Interpretation of Ketu - South Node in your chart

Ketu is also known as Dragon's tail or south node of Moon. Similar to Rahu, Ketu is also a very difficult position to interpret.

- First house Ketu is considered to give a strong connection with the maternal grandparent side of family. Traditionally Ketu in this placement is said to show rebirth from maternal grandfather side family.

- This position of Ketu often gives a skeptical tendency. Person does not easily trusts others and likes to verify things first hand.

- This position also tend to make one quite alert about any physical ailment and you could end up checking with multiple doctors for a simple physical issue.

- Ketu here gives a sense of some emptiness or feeling of always doing something more in professional life. It can also give changes in workplace environment often. Work related stress can cause stomach related issues such as hyper acidity etc. Typically these health issues are seen between 35 to 39th year.

- This position suggests that you may have a tendency to approach matters related to health, family members, and your spouse in a whimsical and unpredictable manner. It is important for you to find a balance between embracing your creative approach and maintaining practicality in these areas to ensure harmony and understanding among your loved ones. Remember to listen to your intuition while also considering the tangible aspects that impact these areas of your life.

- Since you have Sun – Ketu associated by aspect or position it shows health trouble to father in 12th year. It also shows job or professional gains from connections from far away places.

- This position suggests that you have the potential to earn money, yet it also indicates a tendency to experience anxiety around managing and safeguarding your finances. It may be important for you to develop healthy financial habits and find a balance between generating wealth and finding peace of mind regarding money matters.

- This placement suggests that you may have created imaginary beliefs or fears around the potential for sudden financial loss, leading you to seek advice from numerous sources. It may indicate a tendency to be influenced by others' opinions in matters related to money and investments. Trust in your own instincts and intuition to navigate financial decisions with confidence.

SAMPLE

Table of Vimshottari Dasha - Vimshottari Dasha is one of the most common method of timing of events in Vedic Astrology. As a general rule, throughout your life time various periods are governed by different combinations of planets. Following tables gives a summary of 2 levels of Vimshottari Dasha in your life. If you experience any unpleasant time period then doing some simple measure (remedies) for planet governing the Vimshottari Dasha of that time is generally recommended.

How to See the Vimshottari Table

Every row has 2 planets separated by hyphen. First planet is the Maha Dasha (Main) Lord or and Second planet after hyphen is the Sub lord (or Antar Lord) . At any given point in your life, you will be under a Main lord and Sub period lord. Thus if you want to find your current Main - Sub Lord, find the row where today's date falls and look at the Main and Sub Lord from table. This way you can find Main Planetary Lord and Sub Lord for any period in your life
